The Ballard Camp of the Daughters of the Pioneers met yesterday at the home of Mrs. M. J. Watkins. Mrs. E. M. Hammond gave the chapter on the Life of Wilford Woodruff. Mrs. Grace Price gave the bible lesson. Mrs. Hallstone of the First ward gave a talk. The hostess served tea.

The Cllo Circle met this week with Mrs. Shambart. Mrs. George C. Jensen gave an interesting discussion of Frank Wedekind and read his drama The Awakening of Spring. The hostess served tea. The guests of the afternoon were Mrs. Paul Jones, Mrs. Sidney Stevens, Miss Amy Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Knowlden entertained a number of their friends on Wednesday evening at their home on East Third North. A delicious luncheon was served. The table was beautifully decorated with pink and white carnations. Covers were laid for nine. After luncheon the time was spent in music and games.

Let us hasten to applaud and commend Mrs. A. L. Farrell for her splendid effort in putting before the public two such high class dramas as A Lesson in Marriage and The Hour Glass. The cast was well trained and did admirable work. Adding greatly to the pleasure of the evening was the singing rendered by our well known artists Mrs. Sloan, Mr. Farrell, Mr. McMurrin and Miss Luna Farrell. All in all the evening was a remarkable success.

The U. A. C. Women's club celebrated their anniversary on Monday with a luncheon at the home of Mrs. G. W. Thatcher on East Center. The effective decorations and delicious menu were carried out in the club colors, green and white. White

Pleasing Show at Ogden

Rich Company a Sensation With Production Of Play The Girl From Panama

Realizing for some time that Ogden theatre goers were fond of a real musical show, the management of the Ogden theatre secured the Frank Rich company for a short engagement and while a good show was promised, a real surprise was given the patrons of the Ogden in the performance given last night. The company is called a musical comedy organization, but in reality it can be classed as a light opera show for the company contains some of the best talent seen in Ogden in a long time.

For the opening bill, The Girl From Panama was selected, and while the plot of the play is not very strong, still the story is of sufficient interest to hold the attention of the audience, and it gives the company excellent opportunities to display real talent. There is not a dull moment during the entire performance and the merry making is fast and furious.

George Burton the principal comedian, was seen as a colored orderly, who is mistaken for a king and to say that he captured his audience by his witticisms, is putting it mildly. His song, I'm Lonely Since My Monkey Died, will be heard all over town this week, and his parodies gained him four encores. Tommy sweet peas and smilax decorated the table, and attractive hand painted cards marked places for twenty-five. Miss Wilkinson was toast mistress and drew responses from Mrs. Widtsoe, Mrs. Ball, Mrs. Stevens, Mrs. B. G. Thatcher, Mrs. Horace Nebeker, Mrs. Paul Jones, Mrs. Frank Thatcher, Miss Elizabeth Smith, Miss Kyle.

Miss Mae Benson was the hostess at a delightful card party given on Tuesday evening at her home on West First South. The rooms were decorated with cut flowers. A delicious luncheon was served.

Reverse Not True.
Scott—"A man may be so effusively pleasant with everybody that he becomes a nuisance." Mott—"True. But a man who endeavors habitually to make himself a nuisance never succeeds by any accident in being pleasant."

Lucid Explanation.
"There's a terrible noise in the nursery, Mollie," said her mistress. "What is the matter? Can't you keep the baby quiet?" "Sure, mum," replied Mollie, "I can't keep him quiet unless I let him make a noise."—Lippincott's.

Truth and Love.
When I remember how earnestly men have striven to think their way into the secrets of the universe, and how certainly they have failed, I see clearly that only he who lives into truth finds it, and that love alone is immortal.—Hamilton Wright Mable.

Tobacco Consumption.
The estimated daily average consumption of cigars in the United States is 21,718,488, and of cigarettes 23,756,190.

Burns who is seen as a Dago Cook, who is much in love, gave a really meritorious performance and his acrobatic work was surely funny. Gene Post as the soldier's son was at his best, and his singing is excellent. As the Major, Mr. Whelan was true to life. Miss Marie Rich who plays the title role is a dainty miss, who won the hearts of her audience at a bound and this young lady is both pretty and clever. Marjory Mandeville as the engaging widow was happy in her part, and when she appeared in her acrobatic and contortion act she carried the house by storm. This act in itself is a feature. The chorus named on the program, The Rich Rosebuds, is well named and although there are only eight in number they do work that will compare more than favorably with many of the best choruses seen in the larger traveling troupes. Two other good numbers were well rendered by the Misses Raymond and Gordon. The stage setting and wardrobe was especially good and the show really should not be missed. Over five hundred people were turned away last night, unable to get seats as the entire house was sold out before 7 o'clock. The company will change bills twice weekly, Sunday and Thursday, and on every Friday night the chorus girls will present a special feature. There will be a matinee on Wednesday and Saturday.

IS THIS THE TROUBLE WITH YOUR CHURCH?

In the March Woman's Home Companion, Bruce Barton writes an article entitled, Why Fifty Women Go to Church. Last month he published an article entitled Why Fifty Women Do Not Go to Church. He has interviewed several hundred representative women living in widely different localities and asked them for a frank expression of opinion. A woman tells, as follows, what she thinks is the real trouble with the church:

I suppose the real trouble with our church is that it is struggling to adapt itself to a changed community life. For all the years of its earlier existence it was the sole means of social intercourse, the only social center, the only clearinghouse of community life. People came to it gladly on Sunday, not merely for the inspiration that it gave but because it afforded them an opportunity to meet each other, and to visit together after the morning service. Now there are so many other activities that bring them together; transportation is so improved that communication so easy that this great motive for church attendance has lost its power. Moreover, the sermon is no longer the sole means of intellectual enlightenment. Every present day sermon must put itself into competition with a score of magazine articles that have been brought into the community during the week with the daily papers and the great resources of the public libraries. It is no wonder that church attendance has dropped off; but my strong belief is that the need of the community for the church is so vital that it will never pass out of our life. It must readjust itself: I stand loyal to it because I hope to help it work out that readjustment.

What Man Escapes.
Women may have a sense of humor. But if a man wore a section of elevator cable around his neck, and fastened onto it a can-opener, a young monkey-wrench, an ice-pick, a whisksaw, a screw-driver and a sardine-can, he wouldn't have nerve enough to call the mess his vanity outfit.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Mr. Stone's Luck.
When the agent paid Mrs. Stone the amount of insurance her husband had carried, according to Everybody's Magazine, he asked her to take out a policy on her own life. "I believe I will," she said, "as my husband had such good luck."
